

Prime Minister of People's Democratic Republic of Algeria

Mohamed Nadir Larbaoui

Mohamed Nadir Larbaoui is an Algerian diplomat and the current Prime Minister, appointed by the President of Algeria. Larbaoui began his career as a lawyer before joining the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. He held various key positions, including Ambassador to Pakistan and Egypt, Director General of Legal and Consular Affairs, Director of the Maghreb Department, and Algeria's Permanent Representative to the UN in New York since 2021. He successfully secured Arab support for Algeria's non-permanent seat on the UN Security Council (2024–2025). He was also honored by the President of Palestine for his efforts supporting the Palestinian cause.
